SECTION TWO

2.01 MEMBERSHIP

The membership of the Corporation shall consist of the incorporation applicants and such other persons as are admitted as members by the Board. Using the member club as the conduit, each member shall be promptly informed by the secretary of their admission as a member. Each member acknowledges and agrees to follow the teachings, philosophy, system and rules of the World Taekwondo Federation as governed by the Ontario Taekwondo Association.

2.01 RESIGNATION

Any member may resign by submitting their written resignation to the Secretary of the Corporation and it shall become effective upon its acceptance by the Board.

The Board may deem that a member has resigned if a member is more than six (6) months in arrears in their payment of fees from the date at which same became due.

Such a member may reapply upon payment of any outstanding fees established by the Board from time to time and will be treated and considered as an Associate Member for a period of time at the discretion of the Board.

2.03 SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION

The Board may suspend and expel any member for any of the following reasons:

- a) if a member contravenes the by-laws of the Corporation, or,
- b) if a member has acted contrary to the standards of behavior and ethics of the World Taekwondo Federation.

Before this can be done, such member must be served with a written notice stating the alleged offense, and the fact that in the event of non-justification of his/her actions within thirty (30) days from the date of notice, he/she shall be subject to suspension or expulsion upon resolution of the Board of Directors. No member in good standing or a member of a club shall be denied the right to pursue his/her development in the art and sport of Taekwondo. Such right shall include the freedom of choice to attend any location that will accept him/her.

In the event of a member being suspended or expelled from a club, that club shall notify the Association in writing, detailing reasons for such action within 7 days. Such notification may include a recommendation to the Board for suspension or expulsion from the Association.

A person suspended has the right to appeal to the board within 30 days of receiving such notice. The Board shall notify the suspended participant in writing and outline the appeal procedure available at the time the suspension was given.

Any member who has resign or be expelled as a member of the Corporation shall immediately return to the Corporation all books or other property of the Corporation which he/she may have in his/her care, and he/she shall remain liable for the payment of all moneys due from him/her at the date of his/her resignation or expulsion from membership.

2.06 QUALIFICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

Any member must be a Canadian Citizen or Landed Immigrant and permanent resident for at least six (6) months.

2.07 MEMBERSHIP AND VOTING

The Corporation shall have four (4) categories of membership namely:

- 1) CLUB MEMBERSHIP: Clubs requiring membership in the association shall submit to the Board of Directors a completed application for club membership, accompanied by appropriate fees, as determined by the Board, a copy of an Ontario Taekwondo Association approved Kukkiwon certificate, and shall also be sponsored by a black belt member in good standing. In addition the owner/instructor of the club shall satisfactorily answer any questions by the Executive at any interview(s) requested at the Board's discretion. If control or ownership of a club is sold or transferred, approval of same will be required by the Board in order for the club to maintain its membership. The owner of a member club has one vote at any annual or general meeting of members provided that the club is in good standing.
 - i. "Club" shall mean a registered corporation with the purpose of practicing Taekwondo on a regular basis. Clubs that are teaching at location such as churches, community centres, YMCA/YWCA, or in schools, should provide a copy of letters of incorporation, business registration incorporated or others.
 - ii. The owner of a member club shall have one or more votes at any annual or general meeting of members provided that the club is in good standing and according to the number of paid black belt individual members (see section 11.05).
 - iii. Club members failing to abide by OTA bylaw and policies shall be subject to revocation of their membership.
 - iv. Branch Operations – In a situation where one Owner operates out of more than one branch, his/her voting eligibility will be determined by how it is registered with the Corporation. If registered as one club then all votes will be assigned to the one owner. If he/she chooses to register and pay separate club membership fees for more than one branch, then each branch will have the number of votes assigned to a delegate appointed by the owner. The owner may carry all votes or may appoint all votes in the form of a proxy.

- 2) INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP: Individual membership shall be divided into the following sub categories:
- i. Black Belt Member: Black belt membership may be conferred by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion on individuals whose proficiency in the sport of taekwondo has been recognized by the award of an Ontario Taekwondo Association approved Kukkiwon Black Belt upon submission of a completed application together with a copy of an Ontario Taekwondo Association approved Kukkiwon certificate and fees appropriate, and such individuals must be a member of an OTA member club in good standing. The member's vote is automatically assigned to his/her club owner, or his/her club owner's designated proxy, at any annual or general meeting of members provided that the individual member is in good standing with the corporation.
 - ii. Junior Black Belt Member: Junior Black Belt membership may be conferred by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion on individuals who are under the age of 18 whose proficiency in the sport of Taekwondo has been recognized by the award of an Ontario Taekwondo Association approved Kukkiwon Black Belt upon submission of a completed application with a copy of an Ontario taekwondo Association approved Kukkiwon certificate and fees appropriate. There is no voting privileges for Junior Black Belts at any annual or general meeting of members.
 - iii. Non-Black Belt Member: A non-Black Belt membership may be conferred by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion on individuals who have shown an interest in the sport of Taekwondo, other than Black Belt members upon submission of a completed application. There is no voting privileges at any annual or general meeting of members.
- 3) HONORARY MEMBERSHIP: Honorary membership may be conferred by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion upon such individuals as the Board of Directors decides, with such membership to be for the duration and on such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Board. There is no voting privileges at any annual or general meeting of members.
- 4) ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP: Shall be persons active in Taekwondo, as the Board may designate from time to time, and returning members as per section 2.02 with fee payable as determined by the Board of Directors. Associate members will not have a vote at any annual or general meetings of members.

2.08 PARTICIPATION IN ASSOCIATION EVENTS

Participation in any association event shall be restricted to members or associate members in good standing in the association and who have been members for at least 30 days prior to the event.

However, notwithstanding the above, the Board may by resolution reduce the waiting period to allow participation in a competition where the circumstances would justify same.

2.09 NEW BLACK BELT APPLICATION

Instructors are required to have all applications for new Black Belts submitted to the Board. Any Black Belt not processed through the Ontario Taekwondo Association after January 1, 1995 will only be eligible for Associate membership (non- voting), unless the Board decides otherwise.

10.02 REGIONAL REPRESENTATIVE

Prior to each annual meeting, the members in good standing shall elect Directors in accordance with paragraph 10.01.

SECTION ELEVEN – Meetings of Members

11.01 ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the members shall be held at such time and on such day in each year as the Board may from time to time determine, for the purpose of hearing and receiving the reports and statements required by statute to be read at and laid before the Corporation at an annual meeting, electing directors, appointing the auditor and fixing or authorizing the Board to fix his/her remuneration, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

11.02 GENERAL MEETING

The Board shall have the power at any time to call a general meeting of the members of the Corporation for the transaction of any business, the general nature of which is specified in the notice calling the meeting, to be held at such time and at such place within Ontario as determined by the Board or the Chairman.

11.03 NOTICE OF MEMBERS' MEETING

Notice of any meeting of members shall be given in accordance with paragraph 12.01, to each club member not less than thirty (30) days before the meeting is to take place. No formal notice shall be necessary if all members are present at the meeting or those absent waive notice or signify their consent in writing to the meeting being held in their absence.

11.04 QUORUM

A quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of members shall consist of not less than twenty-five (25) members in good standing who are present in person.

11.05 VOTING OF MEMBERS

Only Club Owners as defined in Section 2.07, or the said Club Owner's proxy holder, are entitled to vote and shall be issued a voting card at registration for the meeting indicating the number of votes as registered with the OTA 30 days prior to voting. The number of votes allotted to a Club Owner shall be determined by allowing one vote per Black Belt Individual Member, 18 years and older, registered with both the OTA and Member Club in good standing with the OTA and Member Club, 30 days prior to a vote.

At all meetings, every question shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the Club Owner members present in person unless otherwise required by the by-laws of the Corporation or by-law. Every question shall be decided in the first instance by a show of hands unless a poll be demanded by any member. Upon a show of hands, every Club Owner member having voting rights shall have votes determined by the number indicated on the assigned voting card, and unless a poll be demanded, a declaration of the chairman that a resolution has been carried or not carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the Corporation shall be prima facie proof of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes accorded in favor of or against such resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn, but if a poll be demanded and not withdrawn, the question shall be decided by a majority of votes given by the Club Owner members present in person, and such poll shall be taken in such manner as the chairman of the meeting shall direct and the result of such poll be deemed the decision of the meeting upon the matter in question. In case of an equality of votes at any meeting, whether upon a show of hands, voting cards, or poll, the chairman shall have the deciding vote.

SECTION TWELVE - Notices

12.01 METHODS OF GIVING NOTICE

Whenever under the provisions of the by-laws of the Corporation, notice is required to be given, such notice may be given either personally, or by-email or other means of electronic communication or by prepaid first class mail, or telex, or telecopy (fax) addressed to the Director, officer, member or other person at his/her address (mailing address, e-mail address, or fax number). A notice or other document so sent by mail shall be held to be sent at he/she time when the same was deposited in a post office or public letter-box, or if telexed shall be held to be sent when the same was handed to the telex operator or its messenger, as the case may be or if telecopied; in accordance with the transmittal confirmation report, or by e-mail by the record of the time the e-mail was sent. For the purpose of sending any notice, the address (including e-mail address) of any Director, officer, member or other person shall be his/her last address as recorded on the books of the Corporation. The statutory declaration of the Secretary or Chairman the notice has been given pursuant to this by-law shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the giving of such notice.

12.02 COMPUTATION OF TIME

In computing the date when notice must be given under any provisions requiring a specified number of days' notice of any meeting or other event, the date giving the notice shall be excluded and the date of the meeting or other event shall be included. In making such computations, all Sundays, statutory holidays and other holidays shall be disregarded and treated as if they were regular weekdays.

12.03 ERRORS IN NOTICE, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

No error or omission in giving such notice for a meeting of Directors shall invalidate such meeting or invalidate or make void any proceedings taken or had at such meeting and any Director may at time waive notice of any such meeting and may ratify and approve of any or all proceedings taken or had thereat.

12.04 ERROR OR OMISSION IN NOTICE

No error or omission in giving notice of any annual or general meeting or any adjourned meeting, whether annual or general of the members of the Corporation shall invalidate such meeting or make void any proceedings taken thereat and any member may at any time waive notice of any such meeting and may ratify, approve and confirm any and all proceedings taken or had thereat. for the purpose of sending notice to any Member, Director or Officer, the address used shall be his/her last address recorded on the books of the Corporation.

SECTION THIRTEEN - Publications

13.01 PUBLISHING AND COPYRIGHT

The Corporation may publish or promote the publication of journals, books and other material intended to further the aims and objectives of the Corporation. Editors and editorial boards for each of the Corporation's publications shall be appointed by the Board. The copyright in papers and illustrations, if any, published by the Corporation shall be the property of the Corporation unless the author at the time of submitting the publication has reserved the copyright for his or herself.

SECTION FOURTEEN - Miscellaneous

14.01 ADJOURNMENTS

Any meeting of members or of the Board or any committee may be transacted at such adjourned meeting as might have been transacted at the original meeting from which such adjournment took place. No notice shall be required of any such adjournment. Except in the case of meetings of members, such adjournment may be made notwithstanding that no quorum is present.

14.02 AMENDMENTS OF BY-LAWS

The by-laws of the Corporation may be replaced or amended by by-law enacted by a majority of the Directors at a meeting of the Board and sanctioned by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of members duly called for the purpose of considering the said by-laws or sanctioned by confirmation in writing by all of the members entitled to vote at such meeting.

14.03 REGISTER

The corporation shall maintain a register of members of the Corporation and standing committee members showing their last known address. This register shall be available to any member or standing committee member upon request.

14.04 DONATION AND GIFTS

The Board may accept grants, donations and gifts in the name of the Corporation and its members. Proper acknowledgment and recording of these grants, donations and gifts shall be the responsibility of the Treasurer. Grants, donations and gifts to the Corporation shall not be divided amongst the Corporation members / Directors.

14.05 RULES AND REGULATIONS

The Board of Directors may prescribe such rules and regulations not inconsistent with these bylaws relating to the management and operation of the corporation as they deem expedient, provided that such rules and regulations shall have force and effect only until the next annual meeting of the members of the Corporation when they shall be confirmed, and in default of confirmation at such annual meeting of members shall at and from time cease to have force and effect.
